Mark 6:1-6

In the GOSPEL TODAY

LISTEN!

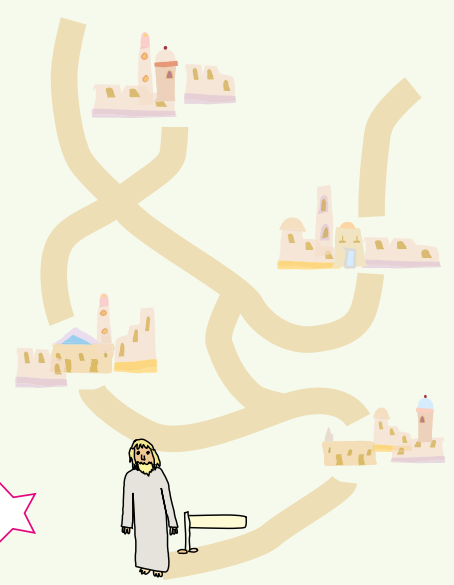

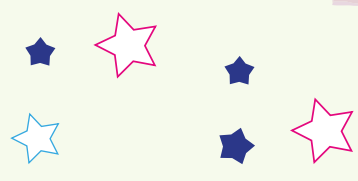

Draw a picture of yourself talking to someone who doesn't want to listen.

Jesus goes back to his home town to tell his old neighbours about God's message of love. They can't believe it and don't want to listen! They knew Jesus as a boy and don't think he can teach them anything.

What did he do?

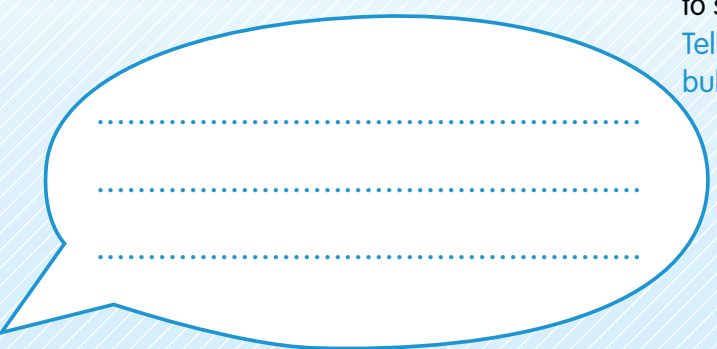

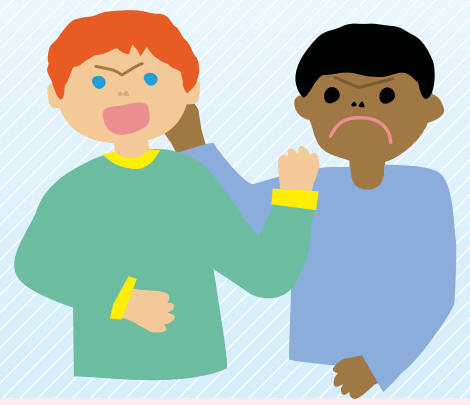

Follow Jesus' path as he goes to other towns where people DO want to listen.
 How many towns are in the picture? []

What do you feel like? happy or sad?
 (Circle the answer.) What did Jesus feel like when he went back to Nazareth?

You can be a prophet!

What would God want to say to these children?
 Tell them in the speech bubble.

A PRAYER TO SAY

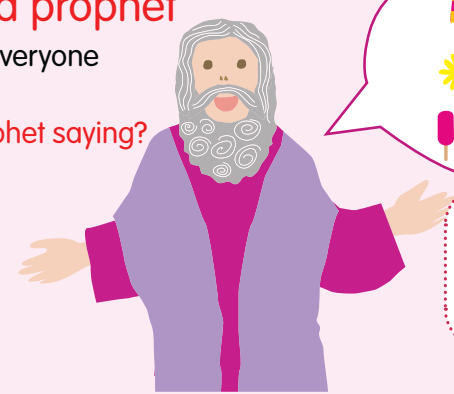

I can learn so much, Jesus, from my parents, my teachers and my older brothers and sisters. Help me to listen to what they have to say. Amen.

Jesus was a prophet

A prophet tells everyone God's message.

What is this prophet saying?

- A= 🌻
- C= 🍌
- E= 🌻
- H= 🍌
- L= 🌻
- O= 🍌
- P= 🍌
- R= 🌻
- T= 🍌

Answers: Help each other. There are four towns.
